President's Report:

- Special Order of Business: As you all know, yesterday, March 8th, is known as the International Women's Day, celebrated around the world. However, in America we celebrate the whole month of March as women history month. Our special guest for tonight will be introduced by VP, Ms. Annette Brown.
- VP Annette Brown: Welcome fellow Toastmaster and special guest. MTA as well as Local 3652 is celebrating women history month. Our special guest is a former VP of DC37, local 375 and member of other organizations and an empowered woman with great leadership, welcome Ms. Michelle Keller.
- As CLUW's President, Ms. Keller explains to the members the importance of women history in New York City and various union organization she's a member of, around the states and elsewhere. She practically covers all the basis within the workforce for minority, what they must go thru to make a point as women.
- New York City Transit is back to fulltime staffing, unless you have permission to work remotely. The union office will be open every day, if any member wants to visit, feel free. Members should visit the website periodically for up-to-date information.

Officer's Report:

- Membership Officer, Odeline Francois: Thanked Ms. Keller for all the information she reported to the members and doing a wonderful job in her organization in NY and abroad. Some members are still reluctant to filled out the green card. We will continue to reach out to those members. Due to Covid-19 we will not be able to have the boat ride as previously planned.
- Treasurer, Sherif Fawzy: In the case of Kronos situation, he hopes that workers have a copy of their time sheet, signed by your manager. MTA had asked all employees to continued swiping until problem resolve. When working overtime, try not to exceed the sixteen (16) percent allowed for overtime.
- Public Relation Officer Andrew Johnson: Members are highly active on the website, with positive feedback. Members can submit their inspirational quotes to Info@local-3652.com.
- VP Annette Brown: Wants members to express their opinion and express their point of views in our website.
